

NEWS FROM MRS. VANDERWALL'S

3RD GRADE

MAY 18, 2018

Reading: Our last unit of the year is Social Issue Book Clubs. These are books that are focused our social issues that people deal with. We are looking at the character's struggles and how we can learn from the choices he/she makes. I am reading the book Loser to the students and keeping my fingers crossed that we are able to finish it!	Writing: Students are working hard on their informational research writings. Most are writing the last "inside" paragraph. As they write, they are adding description, explanations, definitions, and thoughts. These help develop their writings into well written paragraphs.
Science: Ms VanSlooten is teaching science!	Social Studies: We are studying the Growth of Michigan.
Word Study: Our weekly sort is word endings (-ve, -ze, -ce, and -se).	Math: Unit 4 is Number Sense: so far we have worked on place value and rounding. Next we will dig into 3 digit addition and subtraction. Remember to do xtramath!!
